

2023 Recommended Activation Moments

The Trevor Project celebrates LGBTQ Pride every day and invites corporate partners to activate with us year-round. This document highlights notable cultural moments that are relevant to our mission and the LGBTQ youth we serve. In alignment with this calendar, here are four impactful ways we can work together to create a partnership that is timely, engaging, and truly one-of-a-kind.

Four Big Ways To Show Up For LGBTQ Youth With The Trevor Project

Celebrate A Cultural Moment

Activate your brand during an important moment within LGBTQ culture by creating a cause marketing campaign or content marketing program that honors the LGBTQ community, affirms LGBTQ youth, and highlights your partnership with Trevor. Or partner with Trevor to produce a custom educational workshop or exclusive day of service for your employees!

Amplify Trevor's Research & Resources

Drive conversation and awareness among existing or aspirational audiences by licensing Trevor's owned research or tapping our expertise for co-branded social graphics and other content marketing. In doing so, you'll position your company as a thought leader and dedicated ally that uses your channels and platforms to inspire change for a better future for LGBTQ youth.

Examples of our research briefs and white papers can be found here.

Partner On Educational Content

Integrate your brand into custom versions of Trevor's educational resources, such as our youth handbooks, blog posts, or digital guides on allyship and suicide prevention. We can also co-develop new educational material that aligns with your brand's mission and audiences. Share these resources at timely moments throughout the year.

Sponsor A Trevor-Owned Campaign

Partner with Trevor on one of our omni-channel digital marketing campaigns. These Trevor-owned campaigns offer extensive opportunities for your brand to be featured as a key supporter of our mission, and will provide specific assets and messaging to activate across your channels. Check out our 2022 Stories of Pride campaign.

I'm Interested In Activating During One Of These Moments! What's Next?

How we activate with each of our corporate partners is both unique and custom. For reference, beyond providing a flat minimum donation to Trevor, some corporate partners release merchandise with a portion of the proceeds benefiting Trevor. Some give customers an opportunity to donate to Trevor at point-of-sale by “rounding up at the register.” Others may sponsor a corporate match and agree to match individual donations 1:1, 2:1, or 3:1 during a marquee fundraising moment. Each partnership structure includes a variety of recognition benefits that’ll help our partners achieve their goals, and aligns with your minimum donation to Trevor’s programs. Reach out to your partnership manager to develop an activation plan that aligns with your brand, goals, and budget!
